THE BAND

Donte Nagle (Band Leader & Guitarist) hails from small-town, Massillon, Ohio (where the love of football is a birthright), made the tough decision at the age of twelve to pursue his passion for guitar rather than the predestined path of playing football. This single decision would change the course of his life. With the unwavering support of his parents, this Midwest boy was able to hone his natural born talent and pure love for the guitar to carve a 45+ year career in music. As a young boy, Donte began teaching guitar lessons. His thirst for knowledge and quick mastery of complicated signature guitar chords & phrasing is what got the attention of regional touring bands. He quickly landed his first professional gig with "Act 2" at only 15 years old. Throughout his school-age years, Donte balanced his time between excelling in school, playing an intricate role in the High School's Jazz Ensemble, and notably never missing a day of school. Donte's music career has taken him all over the world, where he's been able to share the stage with artists like Paul Rodgers and Bad Company, Joan Jett, & Big and Rich, to name a few. Although never featured on a major tour, Donte has consistently performed over 200+ live performances every year for as far back as he can remember. He not only lives and breathes playing guitar, but is also well-versed in the business side of the music and entertainment industry. Donte's impeccable reputation for professionalism, leadership, and the ability to pivot and reinvent himself and his band is also why he's been able to maintain a 20+ year residency at various entertainment venues at MGM's Beau Rivage Resort & Casino.

Travis Thibodaux (Drummer & Vocalist) a Louisiana-born singer-songwriter started his musical journey at the age of twelve after writing "Take My Hand", which was subsequently recorded by Grammy Award winner, Wayne Tups, and became a regional standard just a few years later. By the following year, Thibodaux's musical destiny was set as he began performing in bands across the Gulf Coast/Southern Louisiana area. By his mid-twenties, Travis spent several years in Nashville, working as a full-time session vocalist and songwriter. It was his work and dedication to professionalism in Nashville that caught the attention of legendary rock performer & songwriter, Jonathan Cain, of the world-famous band "Journey". In 2015, Travis was hired to be the newest member of Journey's touring unit, providing background vocals and auxiliary keyboards on stage with some of the biggest icons in rock history: Jonathan Cain, Neal Schon, Ross Valory, Steve Smith, and Arnel Pineda. "Their songs are so woven into the world fabric. When the first note comes on, all you hear is the roar of the crowd," says Travis. In 2016, Travis released his latest recording "Travis Thibodaux", a six-song E.P. featuring brand-new original tracks recorded in Nashville, Tennessee. Travis is a producer, drummer, pianist, vocalist, and songwriter. You can find him holding down the drums and vocals for the band, "Triggerproof", who is currently the contracted house band at MGM's Beau Rivage Resort & Casino in Biloxi, Mississippi.

Mike Broussard Jr. (Saxophone & Keyboard) has been performing throughout the Gulf Coast for over 30 yrs. He started playing with his father's band, Mike Broussard & The Nite Train, at the early age of 11. Since then, he attended Southeastern Louisiana University and graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Music Education. He later toured with Grammy winner Chubby Carrier from Duson, LA. Mike also owns and operates a recording studio and has worked with clients such as American Idol contestants Brandy (Hotard) Loupe, Ashton Gill, and Faith (Becnel) Cameron. Throughout Mike's musical career he's often seen donating his time performing at benefits for various worthy causes throughout his community and surrounding communities as well.

Chris Zeunges (Keyboard) has been working professionally as pianist, entertainer and musical director for 25 years. He has worked as Musical Director for the Lake George Theatre company and Saranac Lake Theatre Group for shows such as Godspell, Sound of Music, and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Here on the Gulf Coast, he has MD'ed and played in multiple show and party bands. He is recently coming off of a 10 year residence at Pat O'Brien's Piano Bar in New Orleans. Chris is very happy to be here performing Grease!

Jolie Rand Cannon (Show Coordinator) graduated from the American Musical and Dramatic Academy (AMDA) in NYC. She was a featured performer as well as the dance captain in the Off-Broadway show, Mighty Fine Music. She played leading roles on national and international tours, West Side Story (Anita), A Chorus Line (Sheila), and Guys & Dolls (Adelaide) in Las Vegas & Atlantic City. Jolie has shared the stage with legendary actors Howard Keel in South Pacific and Jack Jones, Frank Gorshin and Maureen McGovern in Guys & Dolls. Regional theatre favorites include Young Frankenstein (Frau Blucher), as well as Addams Family, Bullets Over Broadway, White Christmas and 42nd Street, where she was also the company's dance captain. Jolie is the founder and director of the highly acclaimed children's theatre, Broadway Bound, created in Las Vegas and later relocated to Florida. This program develops young performers singing, dancing, and acting. Over the past 2 decades, several of her students have gone on to Broadway and national tours. As a professional dancer, singer and actress over the past 35 years, Jolie has enjoyed changing hats and working "behind the scenes" on the creative side of the productions (while still performing in the shows). From casting to coordinating schedules with the performers, then choosing the costumes and assisting the director, Jolie loves being an integral part of the production team and helping bring the shows to life.
